

Matthew Holden
P.E., LEED AP
President

Energy efficiency has been Matt's passion since graduate school and has professional life since. This led him to begin Sparhawk Group in 1990 with a mission to provide consulting services with a focus on energy efficiency.

sparhawkgroup.com

81 Bridge Street
Yarmouth, ME 04096
Tel: 207.846.7726
Fax: 207.846.7728

150 West 22nd Street
Fourth Floor
New York, NY 10011

8 Faneuil Hall Marketplace
Third Floor
Boston, MA 02109

Matthew Holden, P.E., LEED AP President

With a passion for energy efficiency, Matt has designed robust systems to meet owner requirements while providing lowest cost of utilities and maintenance for over 25 years. A licensed engineer in nine states, Matt has lead hundreds of energy efficiency, commissioning and design projects for multifamily, commercial and industrial clients across the country.

EXPERTISE

- Design of robust systems to meet owner requirements while providing lowest cost of utilities and maintenance
- Provided design-build services delivering more than 50-million kWh/year savings to clients throughout New England.
- Provides commissioning services to commercial, industrial, and multifamily clients
- Provides energy audits to commercial, industrial, and multifamily clients
- Provides professional design services to a wide range of clients

PROFESSIONAL TRAINING

- Licensed Engineer in Nine States
- LEED Accredited Professional, Building Design and Construction
- Certified Energy Manager
- Certified Building Commissioning Professional
- Fisher Controls, Fundamentals of Process Controls

EDUCATION

- MS Mechanical Engineering, University of Iowa, Iowa City, IA, 1982
- BS Mechanical Engineering, University of Iowa, Iowa City, IA, 1980